

One and Two-Day Workshops for change agents, community development workers, educators, facilitators and providers of human services

STRATEGIC QUESTIONING FOR SOCIAL AND COMMUNITY CHANGE

WITH Fran Peavey

author of Heart Politics Revisited and By Life's Grace: Musings on the Essence of Social Change

Strategic Questioning is the skill of asking the questions that will make a difference. It is a powerful and exciting tool that helps local strategies for change to emerge.

Saturday July 28, 2001: Introduction to Strategic Questioning
Sunday July 29, 2001: Advanced Strategic Questioning

Saturday only: $105 waged / $60 unwaged
Saturday and Sunday: $150 waged / $95 unwaged
Cockburn Wetlands Education Centre - Hope Road, Bibra Lake

Contact Rodney on (08) 9337 7217 or ecoheal@iinet.net.au, to register or for more information

<http://gaiawest.iinet.net.au/sq.html>

A Gaia Project

International Year of Volunteers